

StarLite[®]

MAG

Always In Focus. Right On Budget.

When reading between the lines becomes too difficult, turn to the brand that you already trust. StarLite[®] MAG is bifocal eye protection that comes in one of the most popular eyewear designs available. It's a trendy style that your workers already love.

Plus, StarLite[®] MAG is designed with the same emphasis on efficient manufacturing as the original StarLite. It comes with a price tag that will fit virtually any budget.

Featuring five diopter strengths, StarLite[®] MAG has the right magnification solution for most bifocal users. And, at less than one ounce, it's still comfortable enough to wear all day long.

Give your workers better focus for the tasks at hand – at a cost that's easier for you to see.

Now Available in New Options:
• A Convenient Multi-Pack Box!
• And In a Clear In/Out Mirror Lens!
